

May 22, 2011

To whom so ever it may concern

I have observed Shubhra Chaturvedi's paintings over last two years. Her work is marked by a spontaneity and spiritedness which is remarkable. She is constantly in search of new ideas and experiments with different mediums. She is hard working and makes a sustained effort to arrive at a required yet intense expression of her feelings.

I wish her luck and success in all her future ventures.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink on a light-colored rectangular background. The signature reads "Vasundhara Tewari" in a cursive script, followed by a period.

Vasundhara Tewari Broota
Artist